DR. MOUNT, late Treasurer of Millercek Township, claims that he is not a defaulter.

THE Guthrie Grays are making preparations for their usual summer encampment. YESTERDAY was Palm Sunday-next Sunday is Easter. Look out for a rise in the price of eggs. A MAN was convicted at Cleveland, last Saturday, before the United States District Court, for aiding in the escape of a fugitive slave. REMEMBER the lecture of Dr. Bellows on the "Fallacies of Freemen," at Pike's Opera House, Wednesday evening. DR. GROUX will lecture to-morrow evening at the Medical College, on Sixth street, upon the "Motions and Sounds of the Heart." Quite a number of Gipseys have pitched their ents in the vicinity of White Hall, near Covington, Ky. THE Circuit Court of Kenton County, Ky., closed last Friday, after a protracted session of thirty days.

To-Morrow's paper will contain an engraving of a Type-casting Machine, accompanied with a descriptive piece "How types are made."

THE Independent Guthrie Grays have removed their armory to room No. 4 Court-house Building. JOHN SNOW, for kicking in the door of the house of Michael McDermott, in Charcoal alley, was fined $10 and costs by Judge Lowe, Saturday. Tur trial of George Canot and Frederick Colscot, jointly charged with forgery, will take place before Judge Lowe to-morrow morning.

The prisoners are both minors. THE strike of the Cabinet-Makers of this city is now at an end. The hands have all resumed work. Hereafter the Cabinet-Makers'

Protective Union will meet monthly. Tunpupils of the Mission Sabbath-Schools of this city will give a grand vocal concert at Smith & Nixon's Hall, shortly. O. N. Bush, Esq., will superintend the singing. EDWARD REYNOLDS will have a hearing before Judge Lowe to-morrow morning, upon a charge of stabbing James Bartlett. The parties are colored, and hail from Bucktown. DANIEL WILLIAMS had his leg broken in a fight which took place on the Landing Saturday morning. He was carried to the Commercial Hospital. His antagonist escaped. THE distinguished Irish patriot, Wm. Smith O'Brien, is expected to arrive in this city in a few days. He is now sojourning in Louisville, Kentucky.

THE residence of a brass-finisher named Bette, on Wade street, near John, was entered at an early hour Saturday morning, and robbed of fifteen dollars and a number of valuable Bunns, the condemned murderer, is visited daily by his confessor, Father Collins. He does not seem to fear death in the least, and avers that the death of Burke was occasioned by accident.

THE crowded state of our advertising columns this morning must be our apology for the crowding out interesting reading matter. All news of importance, however, will be found under appropriate heads.

KATE HEDGE got very tight early last Saturday morning, and created quite a disturbance in the Thirteenth Ward. She was before the Police Judge on Saturday, and received the benefit of twenty days in the City Prison.

FIRST SHOT OF THE CAMPAIGN .- Robinson & Lake's great Circus will open this afternoon on the City Lot, Plum street, between Eighth and Ninth. As this is the "first shot of the campaign," we bespeak a "rich harvest."

An old colored woman, named Millis Cro-gens, was most brutally assaulted by a drunken fellow named Matthew O'Donnell, last Saturlay morning. Millis had O'Donnell arrested and brought before Judge Lowe, who fined him five dollars and costs. THE journeyman Bakers held a large meeting at Arbeiter Hall, Saturday evening, and adopted a Constitution and By-Laws. Chas. Wise was chosen President, Philip Wyman, Vice-President, and Wm. POLICE COURT.

BATURDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Discharge of Joseph Fish. TRYAL OF ANDREW SARVER, CHARGED

WITH SHOOTING THEODORE PETTIT. SARVER HELD TO BAIL.

Joseph Fish and Andrew Sarver were arraigned before Judge Lowe, Saturday, the former charged with shooting Theodore Pettit with intent to kill, and also cutting with intent to main—the latter shooting Pettit with intent to kill.
Attorney Coverdill appeared on behalf of Fish, and called Dr. Tate to the stand, who stated that Pettit bad told him that Fish had nothing to do with the shooting; that the cut he had received was nothing more than a pin-acratch, and was done accidentally.
Officer Jones stated that he had visited Pettit his norming; that Pettit told him Fish was perfectly inmocent of the shooting; that Sarver committed the deed.

The December 19

deed.
The Prosecuting Attorney entered a nelle, and Fish was the reupen honorably discharged, and the examination of Sarver commenced. TESTLIONY FOR PROSECUTION.

camination of Sarver commenced.

TESTLHONY FOR PROSECUTION.

Officer Jones testified—About ro'clock last Tuesday evening, was standing in front of National Theater, was told that Andy Sarver had just shot Theodore Petiti at the Natrow-Giages Sahon, a few doors he was told that Andy Sarver had just shot Theodore Petiti at the Natrow-Giages Sahon, a few doors he was told that Andy Sarver had just shot Theodore Petiti at the Natrow-Giages Sahon, a few doors he was told the Nations went in and a rested Sarver, started with him to the Station-house, on the way it should be the petition of the way it was to the troop of a man and the shot thus t will allow no do a told the troop of the troop of the should be should be the should be sh saw Sarver with a pistol in his hand; saw him shoot Pettit.

Cross-examined—Think Pettit struck Sarver before he shot him.

John Kelly says—I am a painter by trade; live a few doors from Pettit's saioon; saw Sarver alout half-past six o'clock, Tuesday evening last, on the pavement in front of Pettit's Saloon; he had a pistol in his hand; heard him say to Pettit, "You — of a —. I'll fix you oft."

Joseph McMannus testified—Was at Pettit's in the afternoon of Tuesday last; saw Sarver there; was not there during the difficulty: met Sarver afterward; he remarked to me—"There should have been a fight to day, and we'll have one yet;" the fight that should have been. I suppose, was between the two prize fighters.

Robert Jones tratified—Am barkceper for Mr. Pet-tit; he keeps a salcon on the corner of Front and Con-gress streets; Tuesday afternoon a party of about thirty came into the ber, and, after drinking everal gress streets, Tussing afternoon a party of about thirty came into the bar, and, after drinking several rounds, went into the back room; they had not been in there long before Joseph Fish and a man named Anderson had a difficulty; Sarver interfered, when Mr. Pestit, caught hold of him; Fish then went out of the house, and remarked, 'I will have no more to do with the party;' Sarver made another attempt to get into the crowd, when Petit run him up in a corner, and told him to keep still, that he would have no difficulty in the house; Sarver then ran out on the pavement, and, holding a pistol in his hand, said to Petiti, 'Come out on your own pavement, ou — of a —, and I'll blow your brains out.'

Cross-examined—Saw Petit throw a mineral-water bottle at Sarver when he was out on the pavement.

John Magoere—Was at Narrow Gungo Tnesday last; saw Sarver and several others at the but; something was said about a difficulty between Sarver and Petiti; at this moment Petiti stepped in; Dr. Brown had the two to shake hands and make up; Petit said to Sarver, 'You called me a — of a —, you must take it back,' did not hear the reply; heard report of pistol; Petit and Sarver were clinched at the time.

Thomas Fennel testified—Was with the party at the house of Petrit on the afternoon referred to; we drawk several times at the bar, then went into the back room; were drinking wine and singing; Anderson put his foot on the table, when Fish said he would have to be fined the drinks; Anderson got mad, he and Fish had some words; several joined in; Sarver interfered, caught hold of Fish, and said there should be no difficulty in the crowd; Petrit their caught hold of Sarver, ran him up in a corner and put his hand over his mouth; he repeated this several times; Sarver told Petrit he wanted to keep peace; words then passed, and Petrit called for a pistol; one was laid on the counter and he took it up, pointed it toward Sarver, who then ran out of the house; he stopped on the passenses and said to Petrit. "Come out and I'll fisht you;" Sarver then went away; was at the Narrow Gunge shortly afterward; Sarver and Petrit mot there; had some words; Petrit struck Sarver; turned my back shi heard report of pistol; did not know at the thine that Sarver and a pistol about him; don't know who shot.

The testimony of Milton Armstrong corroborated. FOR THE DEFENSE.

Petiti mot there, had some words. Petiti struck Sarver; terned my back said heard report of pistol; did not know at the time that Sarver had a pistol about him; don't know who shot.

The testimony of Milton Armstrong corroborated the above, as to the difficulty in the house of Petiti. Armstrong was in the back room whee Sarver was on the pavement; did not hear the conversation between Sarver and Petiti; went up town with Petiti shortly after the difficulty; Petiti said Sarver had called him a — of a — , and that if he did not take it back he would whip him before morning; know nothing about the shooting.

The testimony of Chas. Pelton as to the difficulty in the back room of Petiti's house, was in substance as stated by other witnesses. He stayed in the back room when Sarver went out of the house; did not see any pistols; was at Montgomery's Saloon after Petiti was shot; saw Sarver come in with policeman; askedhim what was up; Sarver said he had been arrested for shooting The. Petit.

Sami. Wilkinson, late County Jailor—Was standing in front of Narrow Gunge Sal. on Tuesday evening; saw Fish and Sarver go in; afterward went in with Mr. Daylor to take a drink; Petiti came in and go! into conversation with Sarver; accused Sarver with calling him a — of a —; Sarver denied doing so; words ensued, when Petitis struck Sarver; then heard report of pistol; Sarver then walked out of the bouse. Uross-examined—Sarver did not show any disposition to fight—said he was sick.

James H. Perin—Am har-keeper at the Narrow Guage; on Tuesday evening, between seven and eight o'diock, Sarver came in the saloon, ru company with several, and called for drinks; all had drank except Sarver, when Petiti stopped in, he walked up to Sarver and said, "You called me a — of a — , 1 want you to take it back it Sarver replied, "I did not call you such, The... If I did, I will be down on the floor and let you kick it out of me;" Petiti Insisted that he did, and calching hold of the lett lappel of Sarver's coat, struck him in the face; heard a rep shoot."

Gross-examined—Petiti had Sarver pulled down in a stooping position at the time of report of pistol; am sure Petiti struck Sarver before he was shot.

Mr. Sarver testified—Am the father of Androw; he has had the consumption for over a year; I have indulged him to a great extent, giving him money, etc., he is salvect to night-aweats, and is as work as a child.

The case was submitted to the Court without argument. Judge Lowe remarked that he thought it a case which should be submitted to the Grand Jury, and he would, therefore, hold the defendant in bonds of $1,000 to appear.

REV. DE. BELLOWS .- The lecture of Mr. Bellows before the Mercantile Library Association will be delivered at the Opera-House next Wednesday evening, 20th inst. We understand that Menter's Band has been engaged to entertain the audience while the house is filling up, from seven to quarter-past eight o'clock. Tickets will be for sale this morning at the library at nine o'clock, when seats can be socured. By the by, we do hope to see the day in Cincinnati when a man like Rev. Dr. Bellows will command a great and highly intellectual audience without being obliged to bring into requisition "sonorous brass."

JAMES WHITAKER, Esq., is erecting a subtantial stone-building in Deer-creek Valley, which, when completed, will be used for rendering purposes. The work is under the supervision of Mr. John Dean. Mr. D. informs us that the building will be completed about the first of July, and will contain about 14,000 perch of stone. It will no doubt be an ornament to that portion of the city.

SHORT WEIGHT .- Market master Coffin seized lot of butter, in Findley market, last Saturday, which a huckster was selling in what he represented to be pound rolls, but upon examination, each roll was found to fall short from one to three ounces. The whole lot-some hundred rolls-was sold at auction, Saturday afternoon, and the proceeds deposited in the city treasury.

THE SCHOOL CONCERT .- The readers of the Press must not forget this grand musical affair at Pike's Hall to-night. Just think of a chorus of eight hundred voices sustained by an orchestra of forty instruments. It will be a perfect cataract of music. Benefit of Public Library - "big sing" - fifty cents. Don't forget.

Mr. Sickles Regrets the BLACK CONFESSION PUBLICATION.

CONTRABY (*) TO HIS WISHES! Mr. Phillips-Talks for-His Fee.

Washisoron, Saturday, April 16. We are requested on the part of Mr. Sickles to state that he deeply regrets, for many reasons, but particularly for the sake of his child, who must one day read the record of her mathers' shame, that the confession of Mrs. Sickles was published.

The publication was contrary to his wishes, and if it had been within his power, he would have

Mr. Graham contended that the counsel for the defense had a right to extend the line of proof in regard to the adulterous intercourse.

They had traced the steps of the guilty parties from the rendezvous in the street to the house of their secret meetings, and they should be permitted to go in and show what happened there. The counsels for the prosecution were evidently experimenting with the defense, but there was an avalanche of testimony coming. The prosecution knew it and they cry out to the Court to stay it, but he knew the Court would not stay it; it would stuitify itself if it did so.

Mr. Graham spoke till half-past one o'clock, when Mr. Ould rose to reply to it at great length.

Mr. Forsyth on the Administration.
AUGUSTA, GA., Saturday, April 16. Mr. Forsyth, the late Minister to Mexico, has written a letter declining the dinner tendered him at Columbus.

He says that the Government had no policy with regard to Mexico, and while tacitly approving his course, it superseded him quietly. He is very severe on the Administration.

He has left for Mobile in order to assume the editorial chair of the Register.

Colonel Lockridge's Arizonia Expedi-tion. NEW ORLEANS, Saturday, April 16. Colonel Lockridge, in consequence of General Twigg's proclamation, has suspended operations until he learns the intentions of the Government in relation to the Arizonia expedition. His agent has gone to Washington.
